OUR CITY IS VISITED BY BURGLARS

Who Ransack Three Houses on Sunday Morning.

TWO OF THEIR ATTEMPTS FAIL.

Not Much Cash Taken, But They Give The Citizens a Bad Scare. The Police System is No Good.

Early Sunday morning this quiet city was the field of operation, for some light fingered individuals who made a general visit around town although they entered not by front doors.

When Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle got awake on Sunday morning they thought the house to be unusually cold. Hardly had they gotten awake when they heard the maid calling up the stairs that everything was torn up and that Mr. Mingle's clothes were lying around the kitchen floor. A search was made and it was found that the burglars had pried open a front window and had gone upstairs into Mr. Mingle's sleeping apartments and had taken his coat and trousers and then went down into the kitchen where the pockets were emptied of everything. The thieves secured $21 for their trouble. There were two five dollar gold pieces and one ten. The other dollar was in silver change. Letters and paper were torn open but nothing else was found. The sideboards and closets were all opened up but nothing was disturbed. Not even the silver ware which was on the table was taken as the robbers were evidently only after money. They worked very quietly as no one heard a sound while the thieves were at work. They must have broken into the house very late in the morning as a quantity of tobacco juice on the sill of the window of which they entered was not dry yet. Several matches were found which traced the robbers from the front window to the back door but their the trail was lost.

The next place to be ransacked was at W. H. Wilkinson's on Allegheny street Here there were not so successful as nothing but eatables was secured. When the Wilkinson family came down stairs on Sunday morning they found everything in disorder. Desks were open and letters and papers strewn all over the floor. A large piano lamp which stood in one corner was lying on the floor with the shade and globe in fragemnts. It was the same in this case as at Mingles Nothing was taken and the efforts of the burglars to secure money were not successful. It seemed that they gained an entrance through the back door and left a window open so as to be able to escape if discovered. As above related nothing was taken from this place but a few eatables. In moving around the room they upset the large piano lamp which fell to the floor with a crash of broken glass and this apparently scared them away. When Mr. Wilkinson retired on Saturday evening he left a purse containing some money on the desk in the parlor, but for some reason or other he came downstairs again and got it. Had he not done this he would now be minus some money, as the desk upon which the purse was lying was opened and every thing taken out and searched in the hopes of finding money. Some very valuable silverware was in the house but this was not disturbed or the loss would have been very large. When the lamp was upset Miss Minnie Wilkinson heard a noise which partly wakened her but hearing nothing more she did not get up to see what was wrong. With this exception the burglars were very quiet in their work at this house and nothing was known of their visit until morning when the family came down stairs, and then they discovered that they had been visited by unbidden guests.

The house of Hamilton Otto on East Lamb street was next visited. Nothing of any value was taken from here as the only thing found was some small change. Whether any more places were entered we do not know. It they have been it has not yet been reported.

These robberies are getting entirely too numerous in Bellefonte and something should be done at once to protect the people and their property when they are sleeping. It has gone so far that nobody feels safe; and especially so when there are no men in the houses. Our police system is in bad shape as on Sunday morning the robbers had clear sailing with no police to disturb them. At night there are no police on the streets after midnight, the result is that any house can be robbed without any one getting scared. This should not be the case and something should be done at once to afford protection to our citizens. If this is what the police are paid for they should be compelled to patrol the streets and if they are paid not to do this, then they might as well do away with them altogether When houses can be robbed and nothing done to catch the robbers, then is time to call a halt on such affairs. These robberies on Sunday morning are not the only ones that have occurred in Bellefonte lately and yet nothing has been done to detect the robbers. A detective should be employed and put on the case so that the good people of Bellefonte can lie down in the evening and feel safe and not constantly be in fear of some one breaking into their homes and robbing them perhaps of all they possess. Where our police were on Sunday morning we do not know and perhaps nobody knows but they themselves but nevertheless they should be around town to prevent if possible such proceedings as happened in the last robbery. When burglars can make a tour all around town without running across a police it is time a new system is put in force. If it is not to patrol the streets then some provision should be made so that there would always be a night watchman on the street at all hours of the night. This is a case where the burgess should take immediate action and remedy the matter. Either do away with the police altogether or have the system so arranged that our citizens will not be in constant danger of being robbed.

A Storm at Sea

Increases the discomfort the voyage. But even when the weather is not tempestuou he is liable to sea sickness. They who traverse the "gigantic wetness" should be provided with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters which quiets disordered stomachs with gratfying speed and certainty. To the hurtful influence of a tropic, malarious of too rigorous ot damp climate, as well as to the baneful effects of unwholesome die and bad water, it is a reliable antidote Commercial travelers by sea or land, mariners, miners, western pio eers and al who have to encounter vicissitudes or climate and temperature, concur in pronouncing it the best safeguard. I prevents rheumatism and pulmonary attacks in consequence of damp and cold, and it is an efficient defense aginst all forms of malaria. It can be depended upon in dyspepsia, liver and kidney tro uble.

The Record Broken.

Forney Winner and Charles McDonald rode to Bellefonte Monday morning on their bicycles, and on the return trip Winner broke the record of all former fast time between that city and Lock Haven The two wheelmen started from the Brockerhoff House in Bellefonte together in the afternoon and Winner arrived at Saxton's drug store in this city in 1 hour and 38 minutes, McDonald arriving 20 minutes later. McDonald acted as pacemaker for Winner as far as Lamar, where he fell behind. The fastest time made heretofore from Bellefonte to Lock Haven was 2 hours and 13 minutes. The distance via the Bald Eagle railroad is 26 miles.—Lock Haven Express.

Swallowed His False Teeth.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 23.—Captain H.C. Wagner, a widely known veteran of this city, and secretary of a brewing company, is in a serious condition as a result of swallowing his false teeth. When Captain Wagner retired last night he did not remove his artificial teeth, as was his custom. At 3 o'clock this morning he was awakened by a choking sensation in his throat. He sat up in bed, when he was seized with violent spells of vomiting, but it was not until some time later that he discovered that he had swallowed his teeth and that they had lodged in some very uncomfortable place. The doctors advise Captain Wagner to go to Philadelphia and have the teeth taken out by a surgical operation. It is feared that unless this is done peritonitis will result.

"The people of the United States have seen for years the Cubans ground under the heel of the Spanish Government They have suffered far more from Spain than did our forefathers under the burden laid upon them by England. We deem it appropriate, also, at this time to reaffirm the principles for which our forefathers fought and to publicly express our sympathy with the people who are fighting for the same principle."

The Hectic Flush!

"When his thin cheek assumed a deadly hue, And all the rose to one small spot withdrew; They called it hectic; 'twas a fiery flush More fixed and deeper than the maiden blush." That terrible sign of consumption comes like a warning signal. Let no one disregard it. If they do, the day by day consumption will gain a firmer hold, until the victim lies numbered with the dead. For all diseases and weaknesses of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma, coughs and kindred ailments Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a soverign remedy.

THEY HAVE NOT KEPT THEIR PLEDGES

Democratic Promises In 1892 Not Fulfilled

FARMERS GETTING $1.25? FOR WHEAT

How they Fooled the People Three Years Ago. Bull-Dozing Will Not Work this Time. Farmers Have Had Their Eyes Opend by Democratic Deceit.

In 1892 the Democratic howlers promised anything and everything a person would want if Cleveland were only elected President. Wheat was to go away up in price. Wool would bring a big return if only the McKinley tariff were done away with. Clothing would only cost you half what you were paying for it at that time. Everybody would have plenty of work, and thus their families would be happy. Every mill and factory would be rushed with orders, and consequently would have to run night and day. In fact everything, from the cotton fields of the south to the lumber mills of the north, would be in one grand state of prosperity. All this would come if the Democrats only got in power. No wonder they fooled the people. It was enough to deceive almost any person to hear a Democratic stump speaker perched upon a store box or an ash barrel crying: "Oh, Lord! Give us Cleveland to save this ruined country." The Lord gave them Cleveland, and he has made such a poor job of it that those who voted him into office have been kicking themselves ever since. Let us see how well they have carried out their promises. Instead of getting $1.25 per bushel for their wheat as they were promised, they are now getting a meagre sixty cents. Their wool is on the same train and going down like water off a duck's back. Clothing was to be half price. Instead of it coming down in price it has gone up; and, worse yet, the people haven't a cent to buy it with, even if it were cheaper. The mills and factories that were to run night and day have been three years getting started; and then they only run part of the time. It was not Cleveland that started them; had it not been for the Republican congress that was last elected they would still be idle. Everybody would be happy they told you. It has taken a long time to make them happy and the only reason that they are commencing to get happy is because they know that Democratic misrule is almost at an end and Republican prosperity is nearer a hand. The working man's empty dinner pale and the patch on the seat of his trousers are the most popular Democratic badges to be seen at the present time. And yet they have the gall to ask you to vote their ticket again; and the only answer they give you in reply, as to why they have not fulfilled what they had heretofore promised is that it was only a regular hardtime-famine and that they too have suffered. The Republicans who voted for Cleveland have learned a lesson, and learned it well, and they now know that the only way to atone for their sin is to vote the staight Republican ticket in the future.

Thought He was Dead.

When the 5.12 train arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday afternoon a man was dumped off who was fuller than a little "red wagon." He was rolled off the train and left lay on the brick pavement at the station. At first everybody thought him to be dead but an investigation proved that he still had some life in him. He was put into a hand cart and hauled out to the lock-up and kept there until about midnight when he paid his fine and got out. It seemed he had been out to a corn-husking at Hannah Station and imbibed too much "sweet cider," and the result was that he was completely paralyzed. He said his name was Robertson and at first thought he was in the Tyrone lock-up Office Garis finally convinced him that he was in Bellefonte and the man departed for Milesburg to take a freight-train for Tyrone.

"Good Spirits."

The words have different meanings to a spiritualist, a Kentuckian, and an average man. For the average man good spirits depend on good digestion. How to insure good digestion? A Ripans Tabule after each meal, that's all.

To Hunt Deer.

This morning Clyde Blackford, Simeon Haupt, Mac. McMurtrie and James Alexander left for the Green woods, about sixty miles from here, where they go in quest of deer.

—The "new man" supper for the benefit of the Reformed church on Tuesday evening cleared about sixty dollars.

BOROUGH FATHERS IN SESSION.

Numerous Cases Acted Upon by Them on Monday Evening.

Council convened Monday evening with members Brockerhoff, Curtin, Williams, Bush and Gerberich in attendance. In the absence of President John C. Miller, on motion, C. T. Gerberich was elected president pro tem.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by clerk Isaac Mitchell which were apopted as read.

Jacob Knisely and William T. Royer appeared as representatives of the Undine Fre Co and asked that the annual appropriation be made as it was badly needed.

Monroe Armor asked that the grade on East Linn between the residence of J. L. Montgomery and C. M. Bower, be lowered. He also reported the bad condition of Armor street and asked that that street be opened up from Linn to Lamb. He also made complaint as to the condition of the boardwalk between the houses of J. L. Montgomery and J. Kyle McFarlane.

Street committee reported that the repairing on East High street in the rear of the jail was finished and that both sides of the street near the court house had been repaired. They also reported that Samuel Diehl had moved his fence back but not as much as they thought necessary. They reported that the bridge near Jackson,s flouring mill had been widened to conform with the width of the street. Repairs were reported on Bishop, Spring and south Allegheny streets. The grade on Pike alley has been established, and they are now waiting on the Curtin estate to find a place for their horses so they can commence operations as to the grading. At this stage of the meeting President Miller arrived but did not take his place at the head of the table. In the case of the damage done to the Gheen lot caused by opening up Armor street, the committee reported that a compromise had been made with W. E. Gheen for $300.

Water committee reported due put into Boiler No. 2 at the water works. A report was also made that a tar pavement had been laid along the spring lawn on water street. The nuisance committee reparted that THE DEAD DOG HAD BEEN REMOVED FROM SPRING CREEK.

Market committee reported that $4.10 had been collected as market fees.

On motion the Borough solicitor was instructed to prepare a petition to present to the court to appoint a high constable to fill the vacancy caused by the departure of Michael Burger. Complaint was made as to the manner in the police were discharging their duties; and it was also decided that the attention of the burgess should be called to the matter. It was moved and adopted that a member of council should consult with the burgess and that these two men be authorized to use such means as they thought best to afford protection against burglary. There was a general complaint in this matter from all the members of council in reference to the poor police service. It was moved and seconded that the police enforce the borough ordinances and the burgess report immediately any dereliction of duty on the part of the police. A motion was made that a member of the finance committee take action with the burgess to apprehend the thieves who have been operating around town for some time; and that the council would be responsible for any reasonable expense incurred in so doing. This motion was unanimously adopted.

It was decided to refer the complaint of Mr. Armour to the street committee and to report same at the next meeting.

The gutter in front of C. F. Montgomery's house was reported as too low to carry off the water during rains. The burgess was instructed to purchase helmets for the police and compel them to wear them.

Orders were directed to be drawn for the following bills:

Water Pay roll	$45.50
M. Cunningham	38.00
Kelley and Nugent	14 98
Jenkins and Lingle	43.17
Street Pay roll	30.45
W E Gheen	300 00
Police Pay roll	35.0
Thos Shaughensy	.00
Undine Steam Fire Co	200 00
Logan Steam Fire Co	200.00

This being all the business before the meeting, council adjourned.

Likely to Get in Trouble.

Lebanon, Pa., October 23.—Charles Newmaster, aged 48, and prominently known throughout the county as the "pow wow" doctor, was arrested here today by Special Pension Examiner L. B. Stine, of Harrisburg. Newmaster is charged with violating the United States pension laws by applying for a pension under the assumed name of Charles Smith, giving the Seventy-sixth Pennsylvania regiment as the one in which he served. The accused never served a day in the army. He was taken to Harrisburg for a hearin

DEMOCRATIC ORGANS IN POOR STRAITS

They Stop at Nothing to Prejudice Voters.

SOCIAL STANDING VS. CORRUPTION.

Flimsy Reasons Stated by Flimsier Mouth-Pieces of Democracy are Being Snowed Under by Public Condemnation.

With nothing to work on the county Democratic papers are in a bad way indeed to try and prejudice voters against the Republican candidates H. C. Quigley and Abram V. Miller. Ridiculous indeed were the charges trumped up against the old soldier who has the sympathy of every voter in the county. What a difference in the mode of attack on these two candidates. In the case of Miller they tried to scrape up a black side of his life and then harped away for several weeks on that until effectually quieted by public condemnation of their methods. Instead of making up some story and calling it the "black side" of Mr. Quigley's life they condemn him because he has many social qualities. Whoever before heard of a man being condemned because he was fortunate enough to have a good social standing. Modern civilization is greatly benefited by good society. If it is a sin to be well enough thought of by the world of society as to be invited to the homes of the best families in town, then God help the poor man who is not so fortunate. We know not what his sin must be. If a man is thought highly of by the ladies of the town it is surely a criterion of the worth of the man; and if a person has a poor standing in his own community, then he should not attempt to seek an office from the people who know he has no prestige.

It was purely a case of having nothing else to work on and hoping it might prejudice one or two ignorant people who have not been so fortunate in this world, the Democratic organs have attempted to ridicule a man who is respected by everybody. They say he did not recognize people before, but that be is speaking to everybody now. What a poor reason to give a person why he should not vote for Quigley. The absurdity of this statement is the laughing stock of every respectable voter. Is it necessary for a man to have no social standing in his own community in order to secure a public office? Does a man have to shun society all his life to obtain the good will of a few who have not had the good fortune to have been taken up by these people? If this is the case then no respectable man would want such an office. If it is necessary to court the good graces of all the rogues and law breakers in the county to secure an office then public trusts are better vacant than filled by men who will do this to secure their election. When an office holder has to sympathize with all the dirty political ringsters, he can never do his duty to his country. This is the trouble in the Democratic ranks in Centre county at the present time. No political move is made by that party that the advice and co-operation of one or two low down characters are not secured. One of these persons in question has been doing the dirty work of the Democratic party for years. A good sample of the method of his plan of operating was best shown at the Democratic State Convention at Williamsport a short time ago. One of Centre county's most respected Democrats was trying to secure the nomination as one of the Superior Court Judges. This candidate was our distinguished townsman C. M. Bower. Everybody knows what happened at the convention. A Bellefonte Democrat was trying to work the "repeating" racket to secure more votes for Mr. Bower, when he was detected in his nefarious act and thrown bodily out of the convention hall. This same individual has free entrance to all of the Democratic law offices in Bellefonte. It is a wonder he was not put on the Democratic ticket this fall. From the articles that appeared in last week's Democratic papers, this is the kind of a man the Democrats want and claim should be elected. We do not say this man was employed by Mr. Bower, but it seems strange that he would be working so desperately for Bower unless he had been employed to do it. He is very much in evidence in the present campaign. It would not surprise anybody to hear of almost any kind of a dirty job being done by this person if it is at all necessary to help the Democratic cause in Centre county. Perhaps the Centre Democrat would advise the nomination of this man to run for some office and then proclaim him as the man whom the people want. This is only an example of what the result is when a man has no social qualities or prestige in his own community. Shunned as this man is by his own party, yet they dare not refuse his every request. Oh no, he has already done too much dirty work for them to turn him down now, and then they will need him in the future. This is a plain story of the plan of operation of the Democratic party in Centre county. They employ tools to do their dirty work and then cry out in ridicule when the Republicans put men on the ticket who are above using such methods to secure their ends. It would be much better for the Democratic party if they would abandon such methods as they have pursued in the past, and follow after the Republicans in their upright course of securing the election of their candidates. When newspapers try to hurt a man politically simply because he has a good social standing, they deserve the public rebuke and stamp of disproval which these Democratic mouth-pieces have received during the last week from every voter in the county. The Democrats want a man in the district attorney's office who will not punish these Democratic political tools when they are detected in crime and that is simply the reason why they do not want Henry C. Quigley.

The good citizens of Centre county will sternly rebuke the loose justice of the democratic officials by electing to office a man of sterling worth the [illegible] republican candidate for [illegible]ley, Henry C. Quigley.

WOUNDED BY [illegible]ON.

A Veteran is Shot Twice at His Own Home.

New Castle, Pa., Oct. 23.—Howard Ray a veteran soldier, 65 years old, was shot twice by his son Clark, at his home near Coaltown Tuesday morning. The man wanted to light a fire and [illegible] objected. Clark Ray shot at the old man and missed him and the latter threw a hatchet at him son. Then Clark Ray fired twice again, shooting his father in the chest and groin. The son escaped. For several years the elder Ray drew a pension of $72 a month. He had some trouble with his wife and wrote to the pension commissioners, asking that the amount be cut down. His wish was granted and he now receives $50. He is still alive.

Away from Headquarters.

A stranger once presented himself at the gate of heaven and knocking at the door demanded admittance.

"Who is there?" asked St. Peter.

"It is I," replied the stranger.

"I don't know you," said the voice from the inside.

"I am a Bellefonte Democrat," shouted the stranger.

"Well, it seems to me you are away off from headquarters then," answered St. Peter.

And with a cry of anguish the poor, unfortunate politician from Centre county joined the "mighty throng" which got on the next car to go down in charge of His Satanic majesty.

When at the last primaries the present democratic candidates were nominated without any opposition, it was wondered by many why such had been the case. The question was put to a democrat and unhesitatingly he replied: "Nobody else wanted to be defeated." It is very true they will be defeated, and badly at that too. There is nothing that rankles in a man's heart as much as political defeat; and we cannot blame the democrats for not wanting to be put up for office, only to be cut down by a scythe of republican votes.

Pastors Installed.

Rev. H. H. Ryland was installed pastor of the Falls Creek Presbyterian church last evening, by Rev. S. M. Gearing, of Sugar Hill, Rev. H R. Johnson, of Reynoldsville and Rev. J. V. Bell, a committee of Clarion Presbytery, appointed at its last meeting.—Dubois Courier.

It is a wonder how District Attorney Singer managed to live last winter, as he had to pay almost all of his salary as prosecuting attorney to J. C. Meyer and other lawyers who were employed to conduct almost every case he had.

Tried And Found Wanting.

Singer's ability as an attorney. A little of a poor thing is more than sufficient: but when you try to make us ashamed of the Centre County prosecution department by wanting to return Singer, it is more than even the most patient man can bear.

Singerism and Smithism are away below par this fall. Still it is not any wonder either—the people are tired and disgusted with them and should have a change.

TRIED AND FAILED.

What the History of the Democratic Party Teaches Us.

The history of the Democratic party for forty years past has fairly established the fact that it is incompetent to properly administer the government of the United States.

The administration of James Buchanan proved most effeminate and weak in the hour of a great national crisis, not even so much as protesting against the rash conduct of the south in taking possession of the United States property preparatory to making a concerted effort to break up the Union.

All through the war, and later on during the reconstruction and resumption periods, Democratic incompetency was equally as manifest as when Buchanan was president. True it was not in power, but it took up the advocacy of the wrong side of every issue, only to afterward acknowledge that it was mistaken.

Then when at last in an unfortunate hour the people restored it to power, the incompetency that for so many long years had characterized Democracy was made most apparent. It utterly failed to meet the requirements of the hour, but from the moment it began to administer the government it also began to bungle affairs. It cut off the sources of government income, precipitated a financial panic, exhausted the resources of the government and began to increase the national debt, the reduction of which had been constantly going on ever since the war.

Today the income of the government is not sufficient to meet its expenditures by at least $50,000,000 annually, and it is not on record that any Democrat has suggested a plan for remedying this deficiency.

We do not refer to these things for the purpose of discrediting the good intentions of the Democratic leaders, but merely to emphasize the fact that they are wholly incompetent to manage the government, and ought not to have been entrusted with a task so greatly beyond their ability to perform.—Phœnixville Republican.

FREE TRADE IN ENGLAND.

Most Disastrous Results That They Anxiously Urge Us to Follow.

We believe that the time is still within the memory of the American people when they were told so repeatedly and so forcibly how free trade would increase our exports; how it would open the markets of the world to us and enable us to sell our goods [illegible]pidly that our farmers and manu[illegible]would have difficulty in supp[illegible]nd. Let us see what free trad[illegible] for the English producers. Here [illegible]their exports of British produce during the last twelve years;

EXPORTS OF BRITISH PRODUCE.

	Value.	Per capita value. £ s. d.
1882	£251,467,162	6 17 2
1883	218,094,865	5 16 6
Decrease	£23,372,297	£1 3 6

The statistics of the United Kingdom [illegible] that the exports of British produce [illegible]orth £23,372,297 less in 1893 than in 1882. The decrease during the twelve years was at the rate of £23,372,297 a year. The value of the exports of British produce in 1893 was £6 17s. 2d. per capita of the population. In 1893 it had fallen off to £5 13s. 6d. per capita, the loss of export trade during the dozen years of free trade being at the rate of £1 3s. 6d. per capita of population per annum.

Free traders in this country should make a note of these facts. It might be well for protectionists to place this in their hats, so as to remind the free traders, when they get to work on their campaign lies again, that, during a period of a dozen years of free trade in the United Kingdom, the exports of British produce decreased at the rate of $115,000,000 a year, or $6 per capita of the population. This is one of the things that the English free traders recommend Americans to adopt.

American Goods Got There.

Messrs. Landers, Frary & Clark have supplied all the cutlery that is used on the new American liner St. Louis. Patriotic Americans will rejoice in this act, because it shows that the International Navigation company believes in patronising American industries. Transatlantic travelers who have been in the habit of using cutlery supplied by English manufacturers will, we are quite sure, find that there is no deterioration in the quality of the American cutlery that is used on the American steamship St. Louis, and which will also subsequently be used on her sister ship, the St. Paul.

A Job for Mr. Cleveland.

The man who enters the White House on March 4, 1897, should appoint Grover Cleveland as fish commissioner. He has been fitting himself all summer for the position, which is still vacant.—New York Mail and Express.

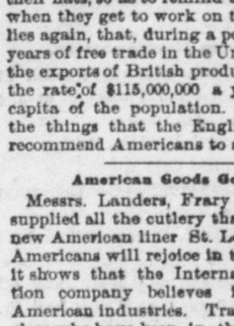
Time to Catch Up with the Times.

It is time for the Democratic party to admit otherwise than in mere phrases that the Union is restored.—Pittsburg Index Appeal (Dem.).

HARRY WRIGHT DEAD.

The Noted Baseball Veteran a Victim of Catarrhal Pneumonia.

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 4.—Harry Wright, chief of umpires of the National League of Baseball clubs, ex-player and ex-manager of the Philadelphia club, died at 12:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Sanitarium, of catarrhal pneumonia. Mr. Wright, who has done more than any other man to bring baseball to its present high standing, was a native of England, where he was born in 1835. A year later, however, his parents removed to New York, and Harry received his youthful education in that city. In his youth he was always an ardent cricket player, and in 1857 was first engaged as a professional bowler by the St. George Cricket club, succeeding his father.



HARRY WRIGHT.

In 1858 Mr. Wright began to play baseball. Eight years later he went to Cincinnati, and there organized the famous Red Stockings. Since that time he has always been a baseball leader, but for years has taken no active part in the game.

Killed by a Fall of Rock.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 7.—A fall of rock in the Murray shaft, at Dunmore, caused the death of Thomas Brown, a member of the firm of Murray, Carney & Brown, operators of the colliery.

THE best investment in real estate is to keep buildings well painted. Paint protects the house and saves repairs. You sometimes want to sell—many a good house has remained unsold for want of paint. The rule should be, though, "the best paint or none." That means

Strictly Pure White Lead

You cannot afford to use cheap paints. To be sure of getting Strictly Pure White Lead, look at the brand; any of these are safe:

"Armstrong & McKelvy,"
"Beymer-Bauman,"
"Davis-Chambers,"
"Fahnestock."

FOR COLORS.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

These colors are sold in one-pound cans, each can being sufficient to tint 25 pounds of Strictly Pure White Lead he desired shade; they are in no sense ready-mixed paints, but a combination of perfectly pure colors in the handiest form to tint Strictly Pure White Lead.

OPERATORS TAKE IT EASY.

The Clearfield Region Leaders Claim That the Strike is on, But the Employers Have Made no Move.

DuBois, Pa., Oct. 18.—The miners here have indorsed the action of the Clearfield convention calling for a strike unless the operators grant an advance of five cents per ton, or agree to meet their employees in a conference. The leaders claim that the strike is now complete from Cambria county to this region, and that not a mine in Central Pennsylvania is now being worked. They claim that 25,000 men are in the movement, but this assertion is contradicted by advices from Philipsburg, which state that no meetings have yet been held there and it is a matter of conjecture how many mines will be idle on Monday. The operators have taken no steps to avert the threatened suspension, and some assert that they can purchase all the coal they need in other regions at less price than it would cost to mine it, should they grant the advance asked.

To Be Aired in Court.

Williamsport, Oct. 18.—In the case of the action of the taxpayers of this county against officials charged with receiving larger fees than allowed by law, Judge Mayer, to whom the case was referred, to day rendered a decision that it is a proper proceeding for a jury trial. The matter will now come up for trial at the December Criminal Session.

The case grew out of the minority report of County Auditors McClarin, the Republican member of the board, who refused to sign the majority report because it sanctioned the irregular methods that prevailed in the court house.

Visit to Wilson College.

Newville, Pa., Oct. 16.—At the session of the Pittsburg synod of the United Presbyterian church this morning, Rev. W.W. Barr, secretary of the board of foreign missions, presented the claims of the board, and Rev. A. C. Wallace presented the claims of the Board of Church Extension. This afternoon the synod visited the Wilson Female college at Chambersburg, where the members were welcomed by President A. S. Martin, and the girl students furnished dinner. The evening service here was a conference on revivals, at which addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. Smiley, Wallace, Ross and Harsha.

THE article on "Silver and the Gresham LAW," in the Social Economist for October shows that the so-called Gresham Law is one of two antagonistic tendencies, the other of which, the law of Equivalence of value in exchange, operates to supersede a bad currency by a good one. It is a close scientific discussion of the true operation of the Gresham Law, and concludes that not even by a popular or congressional vote for free silver could our real standard as fixed by the contracts and usages of the business men of the country be changed from the gold to the silver standard.

ANY rise in the money price of goods which proceeded altogether from the degradation of the value of silver would effect all sorts of goods equally, and raise their price universally a third, or fourth, or a fifth part higher, according as silver happened to lose a third, or a fourth' or a fifth part of its former value.—Adam Smith, the Father of Political Economy.

M. EDWARD CUZALET, of Milan, a distinguished and very able Italian banker, says: Since the value of all articles of commerce is represented by the currency, the value of these articles must fall in proportion to the reduction in the volume of the currency; otherwise the moneyed currency could not possibly do the work which the two metals combined had previously performed.

Died at Philadelphia.

Henry L. Dieffenbach, for years editor of the Clinton Democrat, died at Philadelphia on Monday evening after a short illness. The funeral will take place to-day at Lock Haven.

VOTE FOR SIX

That Is What the Supreme Court Says.

Pittsburg, Oct. 17.—The supreme court of Pennsylvania, sitting here to-day, reversed the recent decision of Judge Simonton, of Dauphin county, and declared the act creating the superior court of the state to be constitutional. The opinion sustaining the new court act was handed down by Justice Dean. Chief Justice Sterrett and Associate Justice Williams dissented, however. In his opinion Justice Dean decided that but six of the candidates can be voted for by an elector. Among other things Justice Dean says the courts are without authority to revise the work of the state legislature, so long as that work is in strict harmony with the constitution.

Building Association Taxes.

Harrisburg, Oct. 17.—Banking Commissioner Gilkeson received an opinion to-day from Attorney General McCormick of much interest to building and loan associations. It is held in the opinion that where such associations make their investments in real estate outside of Pennsylvania they cannot be held as doing business exclusively within the State, and therefore, are liable to pay the fees imposed by the banking department act of February 11, 1895; but where such associations have stockholders who are non-residents, procured without solicitation on the part of the association, this fact does not subject them to the payment of the fees provided. As the basis of taxing building and loan associations not doing business exclusively in this State, the Attorney General holds that their stock should be valued at the amount actually paid in.

Behind Closed Doors.

Scranton, Oct. 17.—Col. Colquitt, chief of special agents of the internal revenue department, conducted an investigation of the charges brought by ex-Income Tax Collector W. J. Burke against Collector Herring in the United States marshal's office in the postoffice building yesterday morning. The session was held behind closed doors, and but one witness was allowed in the room at a time. The investigation began at 9.30 o'clock and continued until after 12. John Taylor took stenographic notes of the testimony, after first being sworn to secrecy. Neither Collector Herring nor Mr. Burke were represented by counsel, and the only persons in the room during the proceedings were the principals, the witness and stenographer.

Only one witness was heard yesterday morning. He is James C. Noll, formerly distilling clerk in the revenue office, and who was yesterday admitted to practice law in the Lackawanna county courts. He formerly lived in Centre county. The substance of his testimony could not be learned, but Mr. Burke said that it was in substantiation of the charges which he had preferred against Collector Herring.

Cavalry Reunion.

In speaking of the Reunion of the Thirteenth Cavalry in that place yesterday the Tyrone Times says:

The business meeting of the reunion was held in the post room in the Study block at 9 o'clock, which was largely attended. After the business meeting dinner was served in the Armory at 11.30 o'clock, of which all the visiting comrades partook. The parade took place at 2 o'clock and formed at the Armory. It consisted of the veterans of the Thirteenth Cavalry, Post 172, G. A. R., Camp 89 Sons of Veterans. The procession started at the Armory and moved to Pennsylvania avenue, up Pennsylvania to Sixteenth street, thence to Logan avenue, to Tenth street, to Pennsylvania avenue and dismiss.

A camp fire took place in the Armory last evening. The program consisted of speeches and music.

Attempted Murder Without Cause.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Anna Ketshara was shot and probably fatally wounded yesterday by John Bustock, a neighbor, of Mt. Carmel. Bustock had been on a hunting expedition, and as he emerged from the woods he met Mrs. Ketshara and deliberately emptied the contents of his gun into her breast, face arms. He escaped into the woods. No cause for the shooting is known.

The Correct Dress for Cycling.

If women all dressed alike what a monotonous aspect this world would present! Even on the wheel variety in dress is most desirable, and the rivalry between bloomers and skirts for cycling is interesting "most reverend seigneurs" as well as those of the most frivolous sex. Bishop William Taylor, ex-Gov. Foraker, Mrs. Elizabeth Grannis, Miss Cynthia Westover, Miss Florence Dangerfield and Oliver Sumner Teall—representing the church, politics, law, journalism and society—all have decided opinions regarding the question 'Shall Wheelwomen Wear Bloomers?" which each answers in characteristic style in Demorest's Magazine for October. These opinions are unique and well worth reading. With the same number in one's hand one may take in imagination a sea voyage, for the illustrations to the paper "Homeward Bound from Europe" are so graphic, and the letter-press details the happenings so vividly, that the stay-at-home may enjoy the trip thoroughly without enduring any of the inevitable inconveniences. There are charming stories from the pens of Gilbert Parker, Margaret Sutton Briscoe, Madge Robertson and James Buckham, which is sufficient guarantee of their excellence; and poems by Gustav Kobbe and Ella Higginson contribute additional charm. The departments are, as usual, full of good things interesting to women; and the fashion department is replete with ideas on the coming fashions that will be of great value to those who wish to be forehanded in their preparations for the coming season.

Everyone who will take the trouble to cut out this notice and forward it, with six cents in postage stamps, to the address below, will receive a sample copy of Demorest's Magazine, containing a pattern order which entitles the holder to any pattern illustrated in it, or in any number published during the last twelve months. This offer is a remarkable one, and all should take advantage of it. Demorest's is published for $2.00 a year by the Demorest Publishing Co., 110 Fifth avenue, New York.

Special Court Verdicts.

In the case of Hugh Ward vs. J. T Lucas a verdict was found on Friday for the plaintiff for $2,195.43. The jury in this case was out from 9.45 in the morn- until 5.30 in the afternoon. In the case of Patrick Ward vs. J. T. Lucas a verdict for the plaintiff was found for $617.25.

A suit for damages occasioned by going through line of Philip Collins was that of T. A. Shoemaker, admr. of Philip Collins vs. C. R. R. of Pa. No verdict had been brought in up to noon to-day. This being all the cases up for trial court adjourned.

DOCTOR ALBRIGHT

A BROAD MINDED PHYSICIAN WITH PROGRESSIVE IDEAS.

Believes in Recommending Any Medicine That He Knows Will Cure His Patients. Thinks Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a Great Discovery. He Sites Some Marvelous Cures.

From the Examiner, Lancaster, Pa.
"AKRON, PA., April 24th, '95.

DR. WILLIAMS' MEDICINE CO.:

Gentlemen—While it is entirely contrary to the custom of the medical profession to endorse or recommend any of the so-called proprietary preparations, I shall, nevertheless, give you an account of some of my wonderful experiences with your preparation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The fact is well-known that medical practitioners do not as a rule, recognize, much less, use preparations of this kind, consequently the body of them have no definite knowledge of their virtue or lack of it, but soundly condemn them all without a trial. Such a course is manifestly absurd and unjust, and I, for one, propose to give my patients the best treatment known to me, for the particular disease with which they are suffering, no matter what it is, where or how obtained. I was first brought to prescribe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills about two years ago, after having seen some remarkable results from their use. Reuben Hoover, now of Reading, Pa., was a prominent contractor and builder. While superintending the work of erecting a large building during cold weather, he contracted what was thought to be sciatica. He having first noticed it one morning in not being able to arise from his bed. After the usual treatment for this disease he failed to improve, but on the contrary grew rapidly worse, the case developing into Hemiphlegia, or partial paralysis of the entire right side of the body. Electricity, tonics and massage, etc., were all given a trial, but nothing gave any benefit, and the paralysis continued. In despair he was compelled to hear his physician announce that his case was hopeless. About that time his wife noticed one of your advertisements and concluded to try your Pink Pills.

"He had given up hope and it required a great deal of begging on the part of his wife to persuade him to take them regularly.

"He, however, did as she desired, and if appearances indicate health in this man, one would think he was better than before his paralysis.

'Why,' says he, 'I began to improve in two days, and in four or five weeks I was entirely well and at work.'

"Having seen these results I concluded that such a remedy is surely worth a trial at the hands of any physician, and consequently when a short time later I was called upon to treat a lady suffering with palpitation of the heart and great nervous prostration, after the usual remedies failed to relieve, I ordered Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The result was simply astonishing. Her attacks became less frequent and also less in severity, until by their use for a period of only two months, she was the picture of health, rosy-cheeked and bright-eyed, as well as ever, and she has continued so until to-day, more than one year since she took any medicine. I have found these pills a specific for chorea, or as more commonly known, St. Vitus' dance, as beneficial results have in all cases marked their use. As a spring tonic any one who, from overwork or nervous strain during a long winter has become pale and languid, the Pink Pills will do wonders in brightening the countenance and in buoying the spirits, bringing roses to the pallid lips and renewing the fountain of youth.

Yours respectfully,
J. D. ALBRIGHT, M. D."

LOCOMOTOR ATAXIA SUCCESSFULLY TREATED.

From the Oswego, N. Y. Palladium.

T. D. McCarthy, of this place yesterday told a Palladium reporter his experience with Locomotor Ataxia. The account is of interest because Locomotor Ataxia is supposed to be incurable and yet Mr. McCarthy is cured. He said:

"In October, 1892, I was working at my trade, that of a machinist, in the Eames Vacuum Brake Works, at Watertown, N. Y. I had been sick several weeks before I gave up and quit work. A tired feeling seemed to have taken possession of me, and rest as long and as well as I might I could not get rid of it. I took tonics and other medicines prescribed by the physicians there but kept getting worse all the time. Finally I became so bad that I could only walk a short distance, and that with the greatest exertion. My limbs seemed to me like so much lead, and there was a hitch in my walk. While walking I couldn't think of anything, not even the name of an acquaintance whom I might happen to meet in the street. Dr. Stevens, of Watertown, was my physician, and he it was who informed me that I suffered from locomotor ataxia, and advised me to go to my home. In the spring of 1892 I came to my father's home, 89 Variek Street, Oswego. I had about given up all hope of ever being anything but a helpless invalid. I couldn't sleep at night, and the physicians who attended dosed me with morphine and other opiates. Every day I tried to walk, and every day I appeared to be less able than the day before. I was about the worst looking wreck of a young man that you could imagine. It was in June, 1893, that I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I hadn't used the first box when I began to feel beneficial effects. My limbs appeared to be stronger and better able to sustain me. Gradually this feeling increased until finally I was able to lay aside my crutch and cane. Now I can walk or run as well as ever. I have for sometime past engaged myself in light work. I can't say too much for the Pink Pills. I hope every sufferer will try them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are now given to the public as an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves. The pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N.Y.

Tideout Fire Swept.

Warren, Pa., Oct. 16.—The town of Tideout was visited by a destructive fire this afternoon. Flames started in the livery stable of G. H. Hastings. A high wind was blowing and the flames soon communicated to adjoining buildings. A telegram was sent to Warren asking for assistance. The water supply was low, and the Tideout firemen labored under difficulties. Some of the townspeople removed their household effects to places of safety. The authorities of Warren sent a steamer, accompanied by a fire company, to the scene and soon after yard the spread of the conflagration was checked. Following is a list of the losses: G. H. Hastings, livery barn; Mrs. Davis, store and meat market; Coppie & Gilfillan's blacksmith shop, Rescue Hose company's house, J. W. Cole two dwelling houses, William Conner's dwelling house, the town lockup, V. Dunn's barn, F. McIntire's blacksmith shop and Ed. Bartel's wagon works. The total loss is $25,000; partially covered by insurance.

An Excellent Lecture.

On Friday evening the Court House held quite a large crowd which had gathered there to hear Rev. R. H. Gilbert, of Tyrone, speak on "Stepping Upwards." The lecture was very interesting and was highly appreciated by everyone present.

A large crowd at a lecture in Bellefonte is something new; and yet it should not be the case. The trouble is, the people are very much afraid of their ten-cent pieces. If the people here would once get in the way of attending these lectures it would be a source of great instruction to them. The success of Friday night's lecture is due entirely to Secretary Cota. The same old trouble was encountered—one person had to do it all. Talk about the world going to ruin and then turn your backs when a few cents is needed to help a christian cause. For these kind of people we recommend a thin gauze bathing suit to wear in the next world. It might prove comfortable.

If you have borrowed from health to satisfy the demands of business, if your blood is not getting that constant supply of fat from your food it should have, you must pay back from somewhere, and the somewhere will be from the fat stored up in the body.

The sign of this borrowing is thinness; the result, nerve-waste. You need fat to keep the blood in health unless you want to live with no reserve force—live from hand to mouth.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil is more than a medicine. It is a food. The Hypophosphites make it a nerve food, too. It comes as near perfection as good things ever come in this world.

Be sure you get Scott's Emulsion when you want it and not a cheap substitute.

Scott & Bowne, New York. All Druggists: 50c. and $1.

A Destructive Fire.

Huntingdon, Pa., Oct. 17,—The Juniata Sand company's buildings and machinery, located about half a mile east of Mill Creek, were ruined by fire this evening, and the loss is total. The origin of the fire is not known. All employees had quit work about 6 o'clock, and at 7.15 word was received here that the plant was in flames and that help was wanted.

During the progress of the fire there were two explosions, and some moments after it transpired that both boilers were blown to pieces and all the machinery ruined. Two buildings, aggregating 170 feet in length, are in ashes, and as a result forty hands are out of employment. It is estimated that the loss will reach $10,000.

Within twelve minutes from the moment a call was made for help the Pennsylvania Railroad company had a locomotive and two flat cars in readiness to transport the fire engines and hose carts. The fire companies concluded not to go, however.

Scattered the Bones.

Washington, Pa., Oct., 17.—A few days ago fragments of a human skelton were found in Allen township, and Coroner Johnson, suspecting that they had been placed there by a physician, wrote a letter of inquiry to a doctor residing near Beallsville. Yesterday he received this answer, which the corner declared to be entirely satisfactory:

The bones you described belonged to me. If you are desirous of finding the rest of said body, one leg is in South America and the other in China, and I have the brain. Other parts are in Philadelphia. I don't know how said gentlemen will get together at Judgment day, and the Lord does, I suppose. I used the arms found in Allen township to scare Hungarians. They would take one look, and go down over that hill as though the devil was after them. During the summer I placed the bones in a tree, so the Huns would not stay on the hill and drink."

Contests on the Gridiron.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—The tigers were caught napping in the game with the Princeton seminary team yesterday, and were scored on for the first time this season. Princeton succeeded in making 10 points to the Seminary's 4.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 17.—Yale yesterday defeated Dartmouth in a fierce game. Score: Yale 26, Dartmouth 0.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 17.—The girls of the Lynn Classical High School have formed a foot ball eleven, and challenged the boys of the school eleven to a game.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—The foot ball team from the Indian school at Carlisle came within four feet of scoring against the University of Pennsylvania eleven yesterday. The red and blue scored only 36 points.

Western Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod.

York Pa., Oct. 17—The Western Pennsylvania synod of the Luthern church re-elected Rev. W. S. Fries president Rev. J. Metzgar secretary, and Jere Cool treasurer. The Synod assumed $13,800 of the debt of $65,000 for the improvement of the seminary. Rev. Dr. Enders, Rev. Mr. Stock Rev. Mr. Leisenring, Rev. Mr. Will and Messrs. Marward and Smyser were appointed a committe to raise the remainder.

Good All Through.

"Darkest America" as it appeared at Garman's opera house on Wednesday evening was witnessed by the largest crowd that has been in the opera house this season. Everybody was well pleased with the performance which was a side-splitting attraction all through. To enumerate the specialties in detail and do them justice would necessitate issuing an extra edition; and we regret that such a thing is impossible. However we can truly say it is the best minstrel show that has ever appeared in Bellefonte.

Who Is He?

Philipsburg Ledger, October 16: A report reached us yesterday that a man named Anderson, from Bellefonte, was killed while hunting deer in the Green woods last Thursday. He was standing on a log watching a deer crossing and holding his gun by the muzzle, with the butt resting on the ground. He drew the weapon up hastily and the hammer caught on the log and flew back, exploding the cartridge. The ball, a 44-calibre, struck him under the chin and passed out at the top of his head, causing instant death.

Buried this Morning.

The funeral of Mrs. Ruth Boalich was held from her late residence at Axe Mann at 10 o'clock this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. G. E. Zehner of the Bellefonte Evangelical church assisted by Rev. Losher of Boalsburg. The pall-bearers were Joseph B. Miller, Steele Heverly, Ellis Breon, Michael Weaver, John Griffith and Kurt Taylor. The interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

He Came Back.

In Wednesday's DAILY NEWS we advertised the disappearance of Willian Teller Whippo. He only went to Hecla where he stopped with his aunt and now he is safe in the arms of his mamma.

Weavers Strike.

Allentown, Pa., October 16.—One hundred weavers in the Givernand silk mill struck at noon to-day, because their petition for better wages was refused. They claim they cannot make a living since the mill was put on three-quarter time. They get five cents per yard on French looms and seven cents on Jacquard looms. They demand ten cents and twelve cents respectively.

This morning about 11.30, W. W. True, claiming Detroit, Mich., as his home, was walking across the street in front of the Postoffice when suddenly he threw up his arms and fell heavily to the ground. He was picked up by Chris. McGinley and carried into the Eureka grocery store and a physician immediately summoned. It was discovered that he was unconscious and as soon as medical aid arrived he commenced to come to. At first no one knew who he was and the stranger was so badly stunned by the fall that for some time he was unable to give any account of himself. After applying restoratives to him he partly began to realize what had happened and where he was. He was able to ell who he was and that he was stopping at the Brant house where his wife was also. Mrs. True was telephoned for and soon arrived at the place where her husband was lying helpless. About an hour after the accident happened, Mr. True was removed to his hotel and the latest report was that he was resting easier but still had a roaring sensation in his head.

The unfortunate man and his wife came to Bellefonte on Tuesday and took rooms at the Brant House. Mr. True was selling electrical appliances for curative purposes around town. His very appearance was that of a man disabled by age, but he claims that at one time he took mercury for his system which completely ruined his health.

The physician thought his fall was caused by some digestive organ trouble. The limbs of the unfortunate stranger seemed partially paralyzed after the accident, but this, it is thought, was due to the shock on his nervous system.

Fire In A Coal Mine.

Wilkesbrre, Oct. 18.—A fire was discovered in the Hoyt shaft, at Port Griffith, to-day, and was still burning this evening. It was caused by igniting a feeder gas in the red ash vein, which set fire to a solid body of coal. The Pittston fire engines were called into service and is expected that the flames will be extinguished some time during the night.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

FOR PROTHONOTARY,
ABRAM V. MILLER,
of College Twp.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
HENRY C, QUIGLEY,
of Bellefonte.

VOTE for Quigley and Miller.

SMITH is a regular hog politician. He never knows when he has had enough.

QUIGLEY will be a credit to the district attorney's office, something that Singer has failed to be.

REBUKE democratic misrepresentation by electing Quigley and Miller. This will be a good way to commence.

THERE will be a scarcity of democrats on the day after election. They will have good reasons for not being around.

FROM the tenor of the Democrat last week it is very evident that they would like to turn this campaign into a barefoot-boy story.

THE Democrat and Watchman have very wisely decided to change their song about ABe. Miller's war record. They found it was too good an endorsement for the old veteran.

JUST because it has been the good fortune of a man to have a good education and brighter than the ordinary street loafer is a good reason why he should receive the support of ever civilized voter.

IT is not a question as to whether Quigley wore more straps on his suspenders when he was a boy than Singer; but it is which is the more capable? Every unprejudiced voter says Quigley. So say we all of us.

THE Centre Democrat in a history? of the life of H. C. Quigley said that our next district attorney was for a while a student at the West Point Naval Academy. We would like to know where such a place as that is.

JAKE RUNKLE will not get the chance to "sell" groceries to himself to feed the prisoners in the Centre County jail. Too bad to spoil this chance of his making some money. Wonder what kind of prices he would charge himself?

WHEN the county had a case in hand it was impossible for a stranger to distinguish who was the district attorney, because Singer always had to employ a helper and the helper had to do all the work. Is this the kind of county officials you want?

IF you do, vote for Singer. If you do not, then vote for Quigley.

JAKE RUNKLE and Jim Schofield holding their daily council of war are very much like two little boys fighting about "which is the biggest." They have decided not to have a long distance telephone between the sheriff's office and the Legislature hall We wonder why?

"ALL aboard!" shouted Jake Runkle. "Whe're you going?" asked Jim Schofield. "Going to h—l, if we stay in the Democratic party much longer," replied Jake; and with a fierce look of determination on his face he crouched down in his seat in a Bishop street trolley car muttering: "Jail Hill is not so far away but it's mighty hard to get there."

Voters, Attention!

You have all seen the result obtained by putting into office such incompetent men as W. J. Singer. You all know how he has been sat upon by the court and grand jury at every session. You all know that it is a very rare thing for him to win a case. What is the reason for this? It is very easily answered. Simply because he was in an office that was entirely too far beyond him. It is Mr. Singer's misfortune th at he is not qualified to fill the position of District attorney; but then he should not want an office that he is not competent to fill. It is not altogether Mr. Singer's fault that he is again in the field, but of cowardly Democrats, who were afraid to run themselves, and who are urging him on, knowing all the time that he will be mercilessly defeated.

It is acknowledged by the Democrats, themselves, that Mr. Singer is not capable of filling the position he seeks, but then they say he is about as good as they can get. This may be true, as far as getting a competent candidate from the Democratic ranks is concerned, but then if they have no competent men in their party they should not try to impose upon the taxpayers by putting on the ticket a man who is far below the average.

It is only necessary to look back and note the number of cases lost by Mr. Singer, and consequently the number of law-breakers who have been let go free, to satisfy the most doubtful ones. Is this the kind of a man you want to conduct the cases for the commonwealth? Do you want a man who is the laughing stock of the whole bar when he attempts to try a case? No, no! A thousand times no, is the response heard upon all sides. Then put Henry C. Quigley into the office of District Attorney and all this trouble will be at an end. Put a man in office who will teach lawbreakers and peace disturbersthat they cannot tamper with theCenter couuty court, and then you will be fulfilling a duty that every voter has before him. Put Quigley in office and you will have done an act that you can be proud of Redeem the good work of Centre county's commonwealth by placing a man in charge who will conduct its business in an admirable manner—to do this it is absolutely necessary to elect as Centre county's next District Attorney, Henry C. Quigley.

EVERY voter will do a comendable act by casting his ballot for Quigley and Miller.

SINGER is all right in his place, but his place is away out in the ridges and not in the district attorney's office.

ANOTHER Republican majority in Centre county will put the Democrats so far back that it will take years for them to recover.

THE action of the different grand juries in ignoring so many of Singer's bills clearly shows that he is not capable of filling his position.

QUIGLEY and Miller are the choice of the people of Centre county. Their large majorities at the election will clearly demonstrate this fact.

THE demoralization of the Democratic party in Centre County is enough evidence of their disgust at the way their leaders have been running things lately.

EVER since Singer has been in office it has a source of regret when he had a case to try. It only meant more county money to be expended and in nine times out of ten the case lost through inability to properly conduct it.

DON'T you think the commonwealth of Centre county has already been disgraced enough since Mr. Singer has been in office owing to his incompetency? Everybody else does, and the way to place that office in its former high position is to elect Quigley as its holder.

THE democratic party knows that they have to take care of Singer. The only way he could ever get a case to try would he by being elected district attorney. Were he hoeing his own row practicing law he would surely starve, as no one would be foolish anough to trust a case to a man who is as incompetent as he is.

WHEN the factional fight was going on between Hastings and Quay, the Watchman praised Quay to help defeat the Governor. Now since Quay has defeated Hastings, the Watchman is tearing him up the back at every opportunity. But this is that paper's style. It makes no difference who the republican candidate is he gets a drubbing whether he is guilty or not. That is how Gray Meek got to Philadelphia—by praising rotten Clevelandism and attacking honest republicans.

WERE one to believe half the false statements that the democrats are making daily he would be led to believe that they wear golden crowns for greatness, while the republicans were cast out as black-sheep. If you believe everything that "Pete" Meek says, you can count yourself politically bull-dozed and ready for some little boy to kick you all around town.

A good, healthy wholesomeness will make even a homely face attractive.

There are many reasons why women should take care to be healthy. One very strong reason is that beauty and illness are very seldom found together. Illness—and especially the kind peculiar to women—makes the complexion bad, the eyes dull and sunken, the manner listless and the intellect dull.

No woman in this condition can be attractive to her friends. Personal appearance counts for much, but comfort amounts to even more. What's the good of living if one cannot enjoy anything? If headaches and backaches and dragging weariness and pain accompany even slight fatigue?

If the system is constantly subjected to a debilitating drain, where is the energy to come from to make enjoyment possible?

Personal comfort and a consideration for the feelings of others are two of the incentives to an effort to secure health.

If the illness is in any way connected with the purely feminine organism (and the chances are ten to one that it is) Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure it.

Dr. Pierce has used the "Prescription" in his practice for thirty years with unbroken success. A large book written by him entitled "Woman and Her Diseases" will be sent (securely sealed, in plain envelope) to those who will send this notice and ten cents to part pay postage, to WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

He Won't Need an Overcoat.

We frequently receive notice from the postmasters of different towns saying "your paper addressed to so and so is not taken out, but remains dead at this office" giving as a reason "refused" or "moved away from here." This is about the meanest way for a subscriber to beat the publisher out of the price of subscription, and there is not one case in a hundred in which he does not owe from one to two years at the least. We don't know of any treatment that would do justice to a man of this type. However, we have one consolation in the fact that when he dies—well, he won't need to take an overcoat with him, any way.—Philipsburg Journal.

The number of Harper's Round Table to be published October 22d will be one of the most interesting of the year. "How a Boy Can Come to New York and Find Employment" is the title of a paper by H. G. Paine; "An Electric Trolley Car" is an illustrated article in which methods of locomotion, etc., are fully explained by Herbert Laws Webb; in "Street Games of New York Boys" (illustrated) John T. Wilds gives his more fortunate young readers a glimpse of the poor children's playground; there are entertaining instalments of two serial stories, "Sea Rangers" by Kirk Monroe, and "Oakleigh," by Ellen Douglas Deland; "A Piece of Work", by James Barnes, is a complete story wherein a bicycle plays an important part. Other short stories, articles, and the well-known special "departments" will add to the strength and interest of this number.

Probably Fatally Wounded.

Scranton, Pa., October 2.— A shocking accident at Waverly, th is county, last evening, resulted in a probable fatal injury to Mrs. James Green, a farmer's wife, at the hands of Hugh, the 15-year old son of President Judge R. W. Archbald. Hugh had been hunting with three young men and stopped at the farmer's house to get a glass of water. As he was taking the glass from the lady's hand his gun fell from his hand and was discharged and the ball pierced her lunge. She ran into the house and was found there unconscious. Medical assistance was summoned from Scranton but her recovery is not probable.

To Enforce the Law.

At the regular meeting of council on Monday evening the subject was taken up relative to the nuisance on the streets at night caused by the boys running around and making the night hideous by their wild yelling after peaceable citizens have retired for the night. The ordinance prohibits these children from being on the street after 8 o'clock in the evening, but it has not been enforced. The DAILY NEWS has been advocating the enforcement of this law for some time and the council instructed the burgess to compel the police to enforce the borough ordinances. Now these urchins will have to keep off the streets after 8 p. m. or they will be locked up. "Then there might be weeping a your homes."

Arrived Home on Tuesday.

About six weeks ago Washburn's circus exhibited in Bellefonte, and as the band which they had at that time was about to leave them, as their contract had expired, of course another band was needed. While in our town a new band was organized and in which were the following musicians from Bellefonte and Milesburg: Bruce Garbrick, Robert and Clayton Rote, James Stover, Samuel Bryant, Ira Proudfoot and John and George Johnston. These people traveled through the south for six weeks with this circus and as the season is over, they returned home on Tuesday. They report having had a good time besides seeing a good bit of the country. They say they were well taken care of and only had about four hours playing each day. Mr. Rote was leader of the band, and he has contracted with the manager of the circus to furnish the band for next season.

Citizen Editor's Note.

The Citizens for October will be welcomed by those interested in rational reforms, which have educated as their basis. The editorial treat in a dignified and intelligent manner the municipal situation in New York City, and at length of the influence of athletics in American life.

This number gives a good idea of the field for such a jouanal as The Citizen Dr. S. C. Hooker furnishes an exhaustive article under "A Plea for Filtration." The writer gives carefully selected tables and data, and reaches the conclusion that filtration for large cities, and for Philadelphia in particular, is not only desirable, but feasible. Dr. A. A. Bird furnishes a statement as to the constitution and working of the legislative body of Philadelphia the City Councils. The article points the way to reforms in the organization and powers of Councils. Mrs. Catharine Mary Reynolds-Winslow is the author of a very readable and interesting paper on Charles Reade. It was Mrs. Winslow's good fortune to know Charles Reade personally as far as it refers to the personality of the author her article is written with special knowledge. A brief sketch, "The Passing of Summer," by W. B. Hale, is a little prose poem.

The number contains a lengthy and careful review of General Walker's last book, "The Making of the Nation," by L. P. Powell, and Book Notes, with University Extension Notes and Announcements.

Competent Officials.

The officials of the State College foot ball game at Williamsport will be competent persons selected from the larger colleges, and men who have no affiliation whatever with either State or Bucknell. Reserved seats for the grand stand will be placed on sale at Cornell's drug store corner Fourth and Pine streets. Special trains will be run from Bellefonte and Lewisburg the day of the game, making all stops along the line. The general admission price to the park will be fifty cents, twenty-five cents extra for the grand stand. The police force on duty at Athletic park will be doubled on the 26th, so as to successfully handle the large crowd expected.

Shot by an Angry Man.

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 18.—Peter McCarty, aged 19, was shot and probably fatally wounded last night by Michael Hayes. McCarty, in company with George Bennett, Ella Moriarty, Agnes Moriarty, and Kate Donovan, was passing Hayes's house when Hayes came ont with a pistol in his hand and shot McCarty in the back near the spinal cord. Hayes claims to have been annoyed by boys, and it is supposed that he fired in the belief that McCarty and his companions were some of the guilty ones, but they deny having given any cause of offense. Hayes was arrested.

Wedded Tuesday Morning.

At 7.30 Tuesday morning a very pretty weddingwas solemnized at St. John's Catholic church which united the lives of John Beezer and Miss Annie Murray. After the ceremony the couple went to the home of the bride's parents at Julian, where a reception was held from 11 until 5.

A Pretty Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was that which was held at the residence of Rev. E. E. Hoshour, at which time Mr. Snyder Tate took as his life partner Miss Rebecca Garbrick. The bride is the daughter of our popular ice dealer, Amos Garbrick. The wedding party went to Altoona on Tuesday evening.

STRIKE TALK DYING OUT.

The Central Pennsylvania Miners Will Not Suspend Work as They Threatened.

Philipsburg, Oct. 20.—Whatever may be the result of the meetings held at DuBois, Punxsutawney and other towns in that direction, the miners' meeting held in this vicinity last night indicates that he threatened strike will not amount to much in the Clearfield and Reech Creek regions. At Osceola, Saturday night, miners from the 10 or 12 mines met in mass meeting and resolved to continue at work. The same action was taken at the following named mines along the Beech Creek railroad, the most extensiye in operation: Royal, Pardee, Acme, Forest, Gearhart, Decatur and Baltic, Blooming, Lancashire No. 1 and Oshanter are the only mines heard from here as having voted to go on a strike. Morrisdale miners will suspend work until Wednesday to learn the action other districts have taken. In the upper end of the Clearfield region reports are to the effect that there will be no suspension at the leading mines.

A Furious Snow Storm.

Erie, Oct. 20.—The gale from the Southwest which struck this section yesterday had a snow storm with it, the worst ever known in this section so early in the year. The snow has been falling incessantly since 5 o'clock this morning and at 9 o'clock tonight there are 10 inches of snow on the level.

Vessels are unable to leave port, and those which ventured out 48 hours ago are getting back if they can. The snow is very wet and thousands of dollars of damage is being done to the fruit and shade trees, as the leaves have not yet fallen, and the trees are being crushed.

Miners' Houses Burned.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 2.—Twelve houses occupied by miners were destroyed by fire at No. 8 Stockton mine at an early hour this morning. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was no water on hand to fight the flames and a high wind spread them at will. The buildings were owned by the Stockton Coal company. The loss to the company is $10,000. Mrs. M. McGlory, Patrick H. Conshau, Adam Kluck, Jacob Boshman, G. W. Miller, Thomas Miller, John Mulhern, John Taylor, Samuel McVey, Joshua Wooding, Thomas Burgers and Patrick Somers, who occupied the houses, lost all their effects.

Tampered With a Witness.

Easton, Pa., Oct. 21.—E. Schug, a well known hotel keeper and horseman, and J Hank were each sentenced to-day by Judge Scott to six months imprisonment and ordered to pay $300 fine for attempting to dissuade a witness. Schug was only released from jail a few days ago, after serving a three month's sentence for selling liquor on Sunday. The witness which Schug and Hank tried to dissuade was G. Fuhr, who convicted Schug at a former trial. When the sentence was pronounced Schug fell to the floor and had had to be carried from the court room.

Paid Up Promptly.

On Monday the Union Central Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, paid to the estate of the late Dr. Dart, the sum of $2,500. They also paid to Dr. Lieb, guardian of the Dart children, $1,500 insurance on the life of Dr. R. L. Dart. These policies were paid within ten days of proof of death.

Don't Read!

It is an old and rather well-proved assertion that when all other lines of business are dull the printers are busy! The solution of this condition of things is easy to arrive at. One might as well say when the community is in health the doctors are idle, for when the community feels the need of a physician, and only then, it turns to the doctors. If general trade is dull, merchants and manufacturers seek the printers, and by more liberal use, not only of advertising, but of all forms of publicity, bring business back to a healthy condition.

It is constant advertising that produces an effect, although the spasmodic announcement may have a force peculiar to itself.

Many people protest that it is unnecessary to continue advertising. They can not understand why it is continued; they declare it does not influence them.

The man who denies that he is influenced by advertising constantly before him deceives himself, and his very protest is proof of it is to gaze on the expensive announcement of the elaborate spectacular and electrical production of Joseph Callahan in "Faust" at Garman's opera house this evening. Seats on sale at Parrish's drug store.

Will Build the Road.

Active preparations are being made for the construction of the new bituminous coal carrying line in the interest of the Bell, Lewis & Yates company. It will be known as the Reynoldsville, Warren and Buffalo. S. B. Elliott will be president and under his supervision three corps of engineers are now at work on the surveys for the proposed line. The object of the company in building the road is to assure itself of a sufficient supply of cars for its product at all times, inasmuch as it cannot always secure such from the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg.—Philipsburg Journal.

The Camphor Hospital of 1783.

Before the French Revolution a learned French savant and Physician, Dr. Thielman, started what for a time was known as the "camphor craze." The doctor lectured before the institute on the wonderful curative properties of camphor and held that this one medicine, properly applied, would cure all the ills of the body. He established a hospital, which was soon crowded, and he performed some really wonderful cures. The French Revolution came on soon after and swept the institution out of existence, but camphor is still "the great healer." The ordinary camphor is soft and healing, and if applied to a burn or a sore will relieve the pain and subdue the inflammation. In the liquid camphor it is the alcohol that smarts. A very bright chemist of Dayton, Ohio, has compounded a balm that contains not only the ordinary camphor, but rare and costly camphors in addition, that are known to but few chemists. This compound is known as Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm, and can be had at any drug store, and is widely known as the only remedy that can be relied upon to allay the inflamation of the nasal passages. It relieves the inflammation instantly and heals the deceased membranes. It is a "Catarrh healer." It can confidently be relied upon at all times. Everybody now-a-days uses "Pretzinger's." A small sample can be had by sending a two-cent stamp to Pretzinger Bros., Chemists, Dayton Ohio.

Decision on Fish Basket

Governor Hastings recently received a letter asking whether certain portions of the Susquehanna river had not been sold at one time to Colonel James Freeland, and whether under the circumstances the tearing out of fish baskets by the direction of the commissioners of fisheries is justified. Deputy Attorney General Elkin, to whom the matter was referred, instructs the governor that the act of May 22, 1889, for the protection of shad and game fish is a general law. and applies to all the rivers, streams and waters of this commonwealth. He says the Susquehanna river is a public highway, and the enforcement of the fish laws cannot be questioned.

Where a Riot is Anticipated.

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 21.—A riot is anticipated at the Stickle Hollow mines of the Washington Coal and Coke company, near Perryopols. The foreign miners came out on a strike to-day and threatened to mob the English speaking miners if they do not join the strike. Sheriff Wilhelm has been notified and is preparing against the possibility of riotous demonstrations. The trouble is expected to-morrow when the foreigners attempt to prevent the English speaking miners from going to work. This works was the scene of one of the worst riots of the last strike. The strike is against an attempt of the operators to cut the wages below the scale price, which is 56 cents per ton.

Will Support Its Own Poor.

Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 20.—Sunday school convention and church conference of Mennonites of Pennsylvania, which has been in session in Blough's church, near Daidsville Somerset county, since last Thursday, closed this afternoon. The principal business of the Sunday school convention was the preparatory work looking to the establishment of Sunday school conjunction with that denomination throughout the state. Many of the churches are without a Sunday school. Most of the schools are in country districts and wanting in the advantages of modern education.

The Sunday school convention was attended by more than 200 delegates representing every section of the State. The church conference delegates said the present poor house system is an imposition on taxpayers, and that the proper remedy was for each church to support its own poor. Every delegate signed the resolution.

Has Only Two Legs.

One of the queerest freaks of nature ever heard of is a little dog owned by Edward Lindsey who lives at the red school house between Bellefonte and Milesburg. The dog has only two legs instead of four and notwithstanding this queer state of affairs, is as healthy an animal as one could find anywhere. The dog is about four weeks old and is perfectly developed otherwise than the part mentioned above. The shoulder blades are fully formed and the marks can plainly be seen where the legs should be. It romps and plays with the other little dogs and does not seem to have any trouble in moving around. Here is a chance for some enterprising showman who wants to make some money to put the dog in some museum, as such a thing as this is not an every day occurrence.

A Philipsburg Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was that of Mr. Frank Fisher Irwin and Miss Cora Miriam Row at the St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Philipsburg to-day.

The Gallery Gods raised cain at the opera house on Tuesday evening much to the annoyance of the actors.

—The bill-board along the creek which was removed by the borough authorities will be put up again as it was on private ground.

THE FIGHT DECLARED OFF

Fitzsimmons and Corbett Cannot Agree on the Time.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 21.—The Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight has been declared off by the Florida Athletic club. Corbett and Brady were willing to postpone the fight to Nov. 11. but Julian, as Fitzsimmons' representative, was not, and the club then declared the match off. The negotiations were brief and not in the best temper. Each side charged the other with an attempt either to get the better of the bargain or to kill the fight altogether. At the conclusion of the talk, Martin Julian, Fitsimmons' manager said:

"I did all I could to make satisfactory arrangements, but the Corbett people would not listen to reason. I offered to let Fitzsimmons fight Corbett in private for the side bet, but they would not agree to it. They wanted a postponement to Nov. 11, which was merely another way of saying that they did not want to fight at all. Of course I declined to listen to the proposition. Vendig and his crowd tried their best to job us, but we would not have it."

Brady, on the other hand, charged that Julian flunked, and that he would not have agreed to anything, "except a title to the whole state of Arkansas, with Governor Clarke's office to sleep in," as he expressed it.

Brady later announced that Corbett was prepared to fight any man in the world on Nov. 11, Robert Fitzsimmons preferred, the man to be named within twenty-four hours. Vendig announced that he would match Peter Maher against Corbett for $5,000.

The outcome of the muddle cannot be foretold, but it looks as though there will still be a fight of some kind on Nov. 11.

U. S. Civil Service Examination.

The regular semi-annual examination for the grades of clerks and carriers for the Bellefonte, Pa., postoffice will be held in the school house building on Saturday December 7, 1895,

The age limitation for clerks is 18 years or over, and for carriers between 21 and 40.

The civil service commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliations.

All such citizens are invited to apply, They will be examined, graded, and certified with entire unpartiality and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration except their efficiency as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination. For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, opply at the post office to the secretary of the board.

Special Foot Ball Train.

The State College and Bucknell foot ball teams will play at Williamsport, on Oct. 26th. This game promises to be a very exciting one and will be witnessed by a large number of the friends of each team, as the contest will take place on neutral ground.

For this occasion the Pennsylvania railroad company will sell excursion tickets from Bellefonte to Williamsport and return at the low rate of $1.50 for the round trip. Tickets good going on train leaving Bellefonte at 9.23 a. m. returning by special train leaving Williamsport at 8 p. m.

—Mr. James McConkey, of Wrightsville will hold his Bible Reading on Friday afternoon of this week, beginning at 3.30 o'clock. These are very valuable meetings, Be sure to hear him, in the W. C T. U. room.

Coughs, * Consumption.

The greatest cause of terror of the present day, formerly considered hopeless, is now conceded by the best physicians as curable under proper conditions. Its cause—a depleted condition of the system; a mal-assimilation of food; a wasting away of the tissues; an impoverishment of the blood. The result—a diseased condition of all the organs of the body; a formation of eating ulcers; and the result death from collapse or hemorrhage. But the cure is that greatest concentration into the least possible bulk of the vital elements of lean, raw beef. It is absorbed and nourishes with the least possible effort on the part of the stomach. It creates new tissue, enriches the blood, makes flesh, and by strengthening the great vital centres of the body enables them to perform their functions in a natural manner, and dispel disease. Thousands owe their life to its use.

COAL MINERS MAY GO OUT.

They Want the Five Cents Per Ton Increase.

Clearfield, Pa,, Oct. 16.—The delegates representing the coal miners of central and northern Pennsylvania in convention here to-day voted to strike on Saturday, Oct. 19 for the 5 cents per ton increase in wages asked for at the Philipsburg convention on Oct. 2. The vote for 168 for suspension to 63 against it.

The following circular was issued: "At the convention held in Clearfield on Oct. 15 and 16 it was resolved that on account of the failure of the various operators in nothern and central Pennsylvania to grant the advance of 5 cents per ton asked by the convention held in Philipsburg Oct. 2 therefore the miners of these regions shall suspend work on and after Saturday even ing, Oct. 19, unless the operators comply with our demands or meet us in joint convention and should the operators refuse, or fail to pay this advance on or before Nov. 1 1895, the demand shall be increased to 10 cents per ton. It was further resolved, that no joint convention shall be held unless three or more operators shall agree to attend the same. You are therefore respectfully requested to do all in your power to comply with the action of the convention and report to S. J. Mitchell of Philipsburg, or W. T. Wilson, of Tioga.

Master workmen of the Independent Knights of Labor presided and the delegates were from Tioga, Clarion, Elk, Clearfield, Centre, Cambria and Blair counties. The claim to represent over 20,000 miners and mine labors.

Reading's Mayor Arrested

Reading, Pa., Oct. 16. —Mayor W. F. Shanaman was arrested this afternoon, charged with stealing chestnuts and playing "duck and davy." The prosecutor is Eli Goodhart, a farmer in Alsace township. A warrent was sworn out for the arrest of Chief of Police Cullen on a similar accusation, but as he is at Buffalo, N. Y. he has not been captured. Farmer Goodhart declares that the mayor, the chief of police and several other men whipped one of his chestnut trees and then played the festive game of "duck and navy." His grass suffered and he demands restitution. Mayor Shanaman gave $300 bail for a hearing next Monday. Recently Goodhart was summoned before the mayor and reprimanded for a trivial affair, and the farmer seems to have a good memory.

A Mean Act.

For several days Supt. Taylor has been making repairs on the steam heat pipes around town. To do this it is necessary to dig up the streets at various places where the leaks were. As these ditches were very dangerous to travellers at night, lanterns were put over each one of them as a danger signal. Some sneak thief, who is too low to live, has stolen several of these lanterns, leaving the holes in the streets without any lights over them. These thieves have taken the lanterns from the darkest streets and had anybody driven along there they might have sustained serious injuries. Several parties are suspicioned and a surprise is in store if the stealing continues.

Charged With False Pretense.

New Castle, Pa., Oct. 17—D F Balph formerly superintendent of the public schools, but recently manager of the Keystone plow works, which was sold out by the sheriff last month, was arrested to-day on the change made by W. Goldburg that just before the works was sold Balph went to Sharon, and, by representing that the plant was solvent, he succeeded in having a lot of iron shipped here. Goldberg alleges that Balph knew that there was a judgment of $8,000 against the works, and that the company was looking for the sheriff to seize the plant every day. Balph waived a hearing and gave bail for his appearance at court.

What They Were.

A gentleman walking along Lexington Avenue one day encountered two boys who looked so much alike that he stopped them and asked, "Aren't you little boys twins?" They looked up at him for a moment as though they did not exactly understand, then one said meekly, "No. sir; we are Methodists."—Harper's Drawer.

Fire at Pleasant Gap.

About 6 o'clock Friday morning fire broke out in the residence of Kurt Taylor at Pleasant Gap. The house was burned to the ground, but the furniture and practically everything of value was saved from the flames. The fire commenced in the ceiling near the flue in the kitchen and before much could be done to check the flames the house was in ruins. The loss is at out $100,

Her Corsets Saved Her Life.

Meadville, Pa.. Oct. 16.—Edward Andre, a dry goods clerk, shot Sadie Dearborn, a sewing girl, in front of her home on North Water street, this evening. The ball from a 23-caliber revolver lodged in her corset steels and she was not hurt. Andre is a married man. Up until 11 o'clock he had not been found by the police.

—James C. Noll, formerly of Bellefonte, was Thursday admitted to the Lackawanna county bar to practice in the courts in that county. Jim is a witness in the case of Income Tax Collector W. J. Purl against Collector Grant Herring, now being tried at Scranton.

What an English Writer Says.

An English writer of eminence who has been studding the Eastern question with a special reference to the manufacturing prospects of Japan and China says that gold basis manufactures are actually being driven one of the markets of the East by the Japanese, and this state of affairs has only just began.

In 1873 there were no cotton spindels in Japan in 1894 there were half a million. "New Companies are now forming with millions of capitals. China is adopting the same course. A large cotton mill was completed in China recently with the latest improved machinery. Says this English writer. All this stimulates of Japanes trade is due to the difference between the value of silver and gold which forms a wall of protection to Japan of over 100 per cent, even counting other conditional equal. With the above fact staring us in the face, we ought to see now what a short sighted policy it was to cheapen silver by depriving it of the right of free coinage and expelling it to Asia to stimulate the manufacturer trade and commerce of those countries.—Myerstown Pa. Enterprise.

With a protection of 100 per cent do our wise-acres suppose that the present American tariff of 39 per cent. will long act as a bar to Japanese product? and when they come please tell us what is going to become of the Eastern mannfacturer and his labor? There are but two things that can save the country. and they are protection all round and the restoration of the white metal.

At the A. M. E. Church.

Rev. S. C. Honesty, who was pastor of the A M E church for four years and Rev. G. C. Skinner who was converted in the the church licensed by its quarterly conference as a local preacher and soon afterwards recommended by it to the Pittsburg annual A. M. M. conference for the itneracy spoke at the church Thursday evening. The reverend gentlemen delivered able addresses. Rev. Grant spoke of Revs. Honesty and Skinner in the highest terms, saying that he and Rev. Honesty were born in old Fayette Co. Pa., near by the spot where that great American statesman James G. Blaine was born and that he and Rev. Honesty were truly brothers in the broadest sense. Rev. Grant further remarked: "That no minister in the bounds of the Pittsburg A. M. E. conference had made more rapid progress than Elder G. Skinner since he left Bellefonte his home. You knew Skinner some years ago simply as Skinner, but now you know him as an able eloquent minister of the great African Methodist Episcopal church. A member of the most intelligent body o Afro-Americans in the word.

Hoskins to be Barred Out.

In speaking of the State-Bucknell game on the 26th. The Lewisburg Journal says:

In the recent foot ball game between Cornell and State College, at Ithaca, N. Y., the latter tried to play Hoskins, their coach, who is not a bona-fide student of the institution. Cornell objected, and Hoskins was ruled out of the game. It is rumored that State College proposes to play the same individual on the 26th, a Williamsport, in the game against Bucknell. There is a disposition on the part of the management of Bucknell to permit him to play, because Jennings thinks he can handle him as well as he did two years ago. If it was not right for Hoskins to play at Cornell, then it is not right for him to play at Williamsport against Bucknell. The team presented by Bucknell will be strictly a University team. If Hoskins be not permitted to play, it is probable that some weaker man will take his place. Keep Hoskins out of the game.

Trying to Wheedle the Governor.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 16.—Governor Clarke arrived here this afternoon and was met by a delegation of the citizen's committee. He was driven to the Arlington hotel, where a conference was held regarding the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Judge Duffie adjourned court to be present at the conference. Among those present were also State Attorney Teague, the officers of the Florida Athletic club and General Taylor.

After the conference, a number of the committee said the citizen's committee would endeavor to handle Gov. Clarke as they did Gen. Taylor. The committee completely satisfied General Taylor before the conference adjourned, it was said, that no law would be broken. The gloves will be shown and a guarantee of $10,000 will be offered that there will be no brutality.

Making a Century.

Messrs. Harder of Clearfield, and Gauz, of Philipsburg, passed through Bellefonte yesterday on their way to Williamsport. They rode on their wheels from their homes and expected to reach Williamsport about 6 o'clock last night. Mr. Harder is a candidate for L. A. W. representative from the Central district, and in all probability will be elected. He is a perfect gentleman and is worthy of the support of every wheelman in this district. We wish him much success during the contest, and if he is elected we want to be the first to extend our hearty congratulations.

Veterans Meet at Reynoldsville.

Reynoldsville, Pa, Oct. 17.—The 10th annual reunion af the One Hundred and Fifth regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, was held to-day. The town was handsomely decorated, and the address of welcome was delivered by S B Elliott and responded to by Capt S A Craig. A parade marched through the streets this afternoon.

FORT CONDO ON THE HILL.

Jail and Surroundings in Good Condition

There is nothing in Bellefonte that attracts more attention from and is as much curiosity to, strangers than our County Jail. Situated as it is away up on the hill, it seems to cry out defiance to law breakers and peace disturbers. Strong as it looks to be it sometimes has proven weak in the hands of some of its inmates; and on different occasion when we awoke in the morning the first thing we would hear would be "another one has escaped from jail."

The county prison is built of dark sand stone and presents a massive and secure appearance. In the front part of the building is where the sheriff and family live and they have everything so cozily arranged that it makes one of the most comfortable homes in town. Mrs. Condo is a model housekeeper and the whole appearance of the building is the best testimonial of her excellent qualities as a wife and mother. In the rear of the household apartment is where the fugitives from justice dwell. There are two stories to this place and along each side are the different cells for the prisoners. This part of the jail is kept as clean as a new pin at all times and is under the charge of Sheriff Weaver. The best of order is had from the prisoners and and such a thing as mutiny is unknown They have each one an iron bedstead and blankets, and their washing is regularly done by a woman employed for that purpose. Wholesome food is furnished them by the county, and while it is not as much as one might get other places, it is of good quality and well prepared. A yard is between the prisoners quarters and the outer wall and it is here that the prisoners have their open air exercise. At the present time there are imprisoned in Fort Condo six prisoners, none of which are there for any very lengthy terms.

The jail and all of its surroundings are in a first class conditian and always will be under the present management. Sheriff Condo, since his coming to Bellefonte, has made many friends. He is a genial good hearted man and every where he goes he makes a good impression as to his sterling worth as a county official.

He Takes No Drugs.

EDITOR DAILY NEWS.

Dear Sir:

Allow me to correct the item in the NEWS to-day in which I was made out to have been in a bad state of health and etc. On account of having been plied with calomel years ago the muscels of my legs were made nearly useless and exercise like walking has proven beneficial; but a turn of the ankle throws me suddenly, and that was the only excuse of my fall. By it my head struck a stone and rendered me unconscious for a few moments only. A doctor was there (but not by my orders) and prescribed but I take no drugs and was well in a few moments. Thankful for your intention to state facts I am yours,

W. W. [illegible]

Close of the Pittsburg Synod.

Newville, Pa., Oct. 17.—The Pittsburg synod of the United Presbyterian church adjourned to-night, to meet in Wilkinsburg next year. The closing proceedings were a conference upon "Our Young People's Christion Union," addresses being made by Rev. H. W. Temple, of Washington, and Rev. D. R. Macdonald, of Canonsburg.

A CRY FOR HELP

RESULT OF A PROMPT REPLY.

Two Open Letters that Should Suggest to Thousands of American Women to go and do Likewise.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

LITTLE FALLS, MINN., May 11, 1894.

"I am suffering, and need your aid. I have terrible pains in both sides of my womb, extending down the front of my limbs and lower part of my back, attended by backache and pains in the back of the neck and ears.

The doctors have given me opiates to quiet the pain. I have a very high fever nearly all the time. I am nervous, and cannot stand. My doctor says I must keep in bed. Now I place myself under your care. I am only twenty-one years old, and too young to suffer so much." — MRS. CHAS. PARKER.

The above letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., May 15, 1894, which received a prompt reply.

The following letter reached Mrs. Pinkham about five months later. Note the result.

LITTLE FALLS, MINN., Sept. 21, 1894.

"I deem it my duty to announce the fact to my fellow-sufferers of all female complaints, that Lydia E. Pinkham's treatment and Vegetable Compound have entirely cured me of all the pains and suffering I was enduring when I wrote you last May. I followed your advice to the letter, and the result is simply wonderful. May Heaven bless you and the good work you are doing for your sex!" — MRS. CHAS. PARKER.

All the druggists in town say there is a tremendous demand for Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound; and it is doing lots of good among the women.

If you are sick and in trouble write to Mrs. Pinkham. Relief awaits you.

Religious Services.

Friday evening the religious services conducted in the A. M. E. church were attended. On the chancel were Rev. W. H. Brown, P. E., well known in the pastoral circles of Bellefonte. Rev I. N. Ross of Wylie Avenue church, Pittsburg, a brother of W. P. Ross, who was in charge at Bellefonte in 77, and died of yellow fever a few years later at Jacksonville, Fla., while doing duty as a commissioner appointed to alleviate the sufferings of those suffering from the pestilence, Rev. Jeffries, of Wilkesbarre, Rev. S. C. Honesty, formerly of Bellefonte, now of Braddock, and our own paster, Rev. H. A. Grant.

After the preliminary introduction was made Dr. Ross delivered a very forcible sermon taken from the 1st chapter Dent latter clause, 25th verse. His style is clear, logical and to the point. So much so as to bring tears to the eyes of his listeners.

Remarks addressed principally to the young folks were then delivered by the other ministers present, after which closed the greatest meeting of the A. M. E. ministers held in Bellefonte since the annual conference in 1881. Rev. G. G. Skinner was unable to attend owing to the necessity of returning to his home in Olean, N. Y., where he is engaged to fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church of that place, the coming Sunday.

Mrs. Poorman, wife of Ed. Poorman of Coleville died on Wednesday evening Oct. 10 at 6.30.

O Vergie how we miss you,
None on earth but God can tell.
It was hard to see you dying,
And we know with God you dwell.

But Sister the rules of earth and heaven
The merciful great and wise,
Has only transplanted the flower,
It is blooming in Paradise.

Not dead is the vanished blossom,
We look for with meeting eyes.
The lives in god's beautiful garden;
The garding Paradise

Will you meet us sister, meet us.
Over on the other shore,
Will you meet your little children;
And with them to part no more.

A Friend.

For more than a hundred years the Shakers have been studying the remedial properties of plants. They have made many discoveries, but their greatest achievement was made last year. It is a cordial that contains already digested food and is a digester of food. It is effective in removing distress after eating, and creates an appetite for more food so that eating becomes a pleasure. Pale, thin people become plump and healthy under its use. It arrests the wasting of consumption.

There never has been such a step forward in the cure of indigestion as this Shaker Cordial. Your druggist will be glad to give you a little book descriptive of the product.

Give the babies Laxol, which is Castor Oil made as palatable as Honey.

Buried on Thursday.

The funeral of Hon. H. L. Dieffenbach was held at Lock Haven on Thursday afternoon. It was attended by prominent citizens, Odd Fellows, the school directors, school children, and employees of the different newspaper offices in that city. In accordance with the action of the school board all the flags were floated at half-mast during the day.

A loud ring of your doorbell in the dead hours of night is alarming. So is the first hollow sound of a cough from one's husband, wife, son, or daughter. It is disease knocking. with perhaps a certain silent visitor waiting not far away. Arrest that cough. Stop it. Stop it at the start. A few days use of Ely's Pineola Balsem and the danger is past. Relief is immediate; a cure certain. This remedy is rich in the curative principles of the balsams and also contain certain ingredients that are new.

The Pope Issues an Edict Against Those Gatherings.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 16.—Pope Leo has written an important letter to the Catholic hierarchy of America, condemning the assemblage of congresses of religion The letter has been delivered to Archbishop Ryan of this city and to all other archbishops. It was the main subject considered at the recent assembling of the archbishops at Washington, but the efforts at secrecy were successful in keeping the pope'sletter from publicity. What steps the archbishops took cannot be learned, but with the views of the pope thus clearly expressed it is doubtless that the American church will anathematize congresses of religion in the same way that an interdiction was placed on Catholic participation in the Knights of Pythias, Oddfellows and other secret societies.

Whether Pope Leo's disapproval is particularly in reference to the congress held during the World's fair at Chicago cannot be learned, but as that was the last and by far the most conspicuous gathering of the kind, the letter will be viewed with special reference to it.

Arrested the Duke.

New York, Oct. 18.—The Duke of Marlborough, the fiance of Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, was arrested in Central park this afternoon on the charge of violating a park ordinance.

The Duke was seen by a park policeman passing rapidly down a hill on his bicycle with feet on the handles. This is in violation of a park ordinance made for the safety of persons using the hill. The Duke accommpanied the policeman to the station. He said he regretted the occurrence, as he was unaware of the existence of any ordinance whichh had apparently broken Roundsman Ryan, who was in charge, discharged the Duke, after warning him not to repeat the offense.

AN ATTEMPT TO WRECK A TRAIN.

A Crowded Excursion is Derailed by Wreckers.

Paulding, O., Oct. 18.—An accident which is suspected to have been the result of a malicious attempt to wreck the train containing Gov. McKinley, Gen. Bushnell, Frank Monnett, candidate for Attorney General; Railroad Commissioner Kirkby, A. B. Holcombe, Urban H. Hester, Col. William Galtree and the newspaper men accompanying the Republican campaign ing party occurred on the Cincinnati Jackson and Mackinaw railroad this evening. The party were on their way from Van Wert to Paulding, and as the train left Van Wert and was pulling to a switch to allow a freight to pass, the rear trucks of the last car, in which Gov. McKinley and his companions had seats, left the tracks. This pulled the forward trucks of this car and the rear trucks of the car next in front from the rails, and the wheels went bumping over the ties. Instantly all was confusion, and people endeavored to get from the cars to the ground. The car in which was the gubernatorial party belonged to General Manager Ferris, of the Ohio Central lines. The next car and the two in front were crowded with excursionists, but very fortunately none were hurt and as the train was going slowly at the time, it was soon stopped and the excitement was over.

How the accident occurred is in doubt. The last car either left the track itself, or some one turned the switch after the forward trucks of the last car had gone over. A man who was on the rear platform of the last car said he saw a man running from the switch just before the car left the track, but if it were so, nothing of him could be seen afterward. The private car was left at Van Wert and the remainder of the train proceeded to Paulding. Railroad Commissioner Kirkby remained at the place of the accident to make a further investigation and ascertain the exact reason of the car leaving the track.

The day outside of this was an excellent one, and two of the best meetings of the campaign were held, At Van Wert there were fully 3,000 people in the city park when Gen. Bushnell and Gov. McKinley began the speaking. The parade was a feature because of its largeness and variety. The meeting at Paulding this evening was also a large affair. When the train reached the station 1,000 men bearing torches met the gubernatorial party and escorted them to the speaking hall. It was impossible to get a small fraction of the crowd into into the hall, and the meeting adjourned to the public square, where Gen. Bushnell Gov. McKinley and Mr. Monnett spoke to the thousands.

The Red Leaf.

From Harper's Bazaar.

If when October steals across the scene there were denizens of some near planet to gaze upon the earth, even on our one section or phase of it, what a wonderful and changeable star she would seem to them! A little while ago she swung a living emerald with the summer greenery, as just before that she was a saphire and silver globe, with the winter snow and ice and their azure rifts and shadows, and here she is blazing with tints and glints of ruby and topaz and amethyst in the deep dyes of the northern woods of our parallels. What fortunate beings those gazers may imagine the dwellers on such a star as this must be; what higher order of life may they conjecture it! What superior sensitiveness and virtues must those have who dive in it; what come a undreamed-of powers walking among these jewelled splendors, or mayhap not walking, but dowered with wings! Deluded dreams! Perhaps they think that death, by-and-by, if their deserts are such, will take them to these enchanting regions, and give them the freedom of all these radiances and marvels. Perhaps they wonder what produces these marvels, and apply their powers of search--have their theories and contentions and parties regarding the constitution of the next inner or outer planet, as the case may be, meaning the earth--wonder what we call ourselves, and give us a name that we may never know.

RHEUMATISM

for which S. S. S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to more than twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. I spent hundreds of dollars without relief, but after taking a few bottles of S. S. S. I improved rapidly, and am now a well man, completely cured. Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

DEAR SIRS:

We have heard from many of you during the brief period that our advertisement appeared in this space. Any others desiring full reports and statements can secure same by writing to us.

The further opening up of the South Central group of gold mines, and the erection of a Stamp Mill to reduce the company's ore to bullion, is a square, legitimate use of capital.

1. Mr. Barry, formerly of Cripple Creek, the Bonanza gold camp of Colorado, sold his interests there, and bought the Morning Star gold mine, a producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

2. Captain Plummer, formerly of the Granite Mountain mine, is now working the Delamar Mine, a large producer in the vicinity of the South Central group.

As the Granite Mountain (Gold and Silver Mining Co.) stock rose from about twelve cents a share to over $50 a share, and paid from 25 cents to 50 cents per share per month in dividends, under the superintendency of Captain Plummer, we consider him a pretty safe guide to follow in mining, and we invite you to participate in the nvestment.

—Charles B. Hanford, Elihu R. Spencer and Nora O'Brian lead the company of fine players who will bring out the Merchant of Venice Monday night. It is a show that has been endorsed by the manager of every theatre in which it has been presented. And their endorsement has been supplimented by its hearty endorsement by those who witnessed the performance. In every respect it is a first-class production. The three stars will prove the artistic metal they are made of and their assistants are so clever that they will be only a few degrees less ariful than their trio of masterly Superiors. This means certain a fine performance from first to last. There are no blunders in it. Mr. Hanford will appear as Shylock, a part that he has made his own. Mr. Spencer makes a full, dashing, open-handed, open-hearted young fellow, of Bussanio and as Portia. Miss O'Brien can hardly help winning favor by the grace of her acting.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, taken at this season, will make you feel strong and vigorous and keep you from sickness later on.

AN ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Two Houses are Tried But in Both Cases the Robbers Were Scared Away.

Notwithstanding the general scare caused by the robberies on Sunday morning, the burglars are still keeping up their crusade of crime. About half-past 12 Tuesday morning the family of James McClain, on Curtin street, were awakened by hearing a noise at their front door. Mrs. McClain called down stairs and asked who was there, but she received no answer. Nothing was heard for a few moments and the noise at the front door commenced again, Mrs. McClain then called to Rankins, who live near there, and at this, the would-be burglars were scared away. A few moments later, a man was seen going through the yard, and Mrs. McClain called to him and asked him where he had come from. The man made no reply at first and then in a confused way, said he had just come from down town. The man was dressed exactly like a tramp who was at the house during the afternoon, and asked for some old clothes, notwithstanding the fact that he was well dressed at the time. He had on a new pair of shoes and wore a long black coat which was in good condition. The front door where the burglars were trying to gain an entrance was badly scarred up, showing that they must have tried to kick the door in. They were very nervy as it was some time before they ran away after being discovered.

Just before the McClain house was visited, the robbers tried to get in the residence of William B. Rankin, who also lives on Curtin street. Here too, they were discovered before they could get in the house and steal anything. Mr. Rankin was out of town at the time, and the burglars were very loth to leave. They evidently knew there were no men in the house, and were determined to scare the women into giving them whatever they asked for.

It is time now to pull the string on such occurrences. When these things happen every night it shows that there is something very flimsy somewhere. It is a disgrace to the town that our citizens cannot go to bed at night without being scared out of their senses by these midnight marauders. While they might only take a few eatables, yet they might take all you possess. A man that will forcibly enter a house at the dead of night, will commit murder rather than be caught in the act. It is now the time for the burgess to act, and act immediately, too.

A Big Success.

The "new man" supper on Tuesday evening was a decided success in every particular. The room was crowded until a late hour. The viands served were delicious and many were the expressions of surprise at the exceptionally good quality of everything.

The men wore long white aprons while regular-old-time-George Washington hats were pinned jauntily on their heads. The things they served were so good that it is almost impossible to keep from constantly talking about them.

The room was very prettily decorated and every here and there they had signs hanging to tell the prices of various things. They neglected to put a price on those "Pickles for Lovers," for if they had made it a good price a fortune could have been made right there. At the kitchen a large sign said: "No Ladies Nee Apply' This clearly indicated that it was no matrimonial agency. A little trouble was experienced in connection with the kitchen. It was in this way: Some of the cooks and waiters were married, while others were single. Well, the single ones gradually coaxed the girls back into "their fiery furnace." This part of the program was all right but finally the wives of the married men in the kitchen, came to see how their husbands cooked. Much as they regretted to do it, the men had to pitch the girls out the back door so their wives could not see them.

The supper was a novelty in Bellefonte and caught the peoples' eye, and the result was that it was a big financial success.

Buried Wednesday Morning.

The funeral services over the remains of Miss Agnes Hull, whose death occurred so suddenly on Monday, were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the St. John's Catholic church on Bishop street. The services were very impressive and it was hard to realize that one who had been in such good health was about to be laid to her eternal rest. The funeral was largely attended as the deceased was widely known throughout this community. The floral emblems were many and beautiful and were given by her friends as a last token of the esteem in which she was held. The Requiem mass was said and it took over an hour to perform the last rites. The pall bearers were: George Cunningham, Joseph McMahon, Michael Hazel, Henry Beezer, Frank Waltz and William Howley. The procession that moved to the cemetery was a large one, and every carriage was filled with sorrowing friends.

He is a Papa.

—Since our high constable has left Bellefonte our streets are beginning to have the appearance of pasture fields. We suppose the next feature will be milking stools at each corner for the benefit of the owners of the cows. Nothing like conveniences you know.

Death of Miss Hull.

At 9 o'clock Monday morning the death angel stole into the home of Mrs. Mary Hull and claimed as its victim one of Bellefontes' fairest daughters, Miss Agnes Hull. The deceased was 24 years old on the 25th of last December and at the time o her death was one of the most beautiful girls in our city. She was a devout member of the Catholic church and was always interested in doing religious work. Her health had not been good for some time, but her condition was at no time not thought to be serious. On Saturday night there was a change for the worse and on Sunday the family commenced to realize for the first time that death was near at hand. She became unconscious about 10 o'clock on Sunday morning owing to severe pains in the head and convulsions, and remained in this state until death came to relieve her.

The funeral was held from the Catholic church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. A kind and loving mother, and two sisters and three brothers are left to mourn a loss which will be keenly felt by all the friends of the deceased.

It was a sudden blow to the people of Bellefonte as Miss Hull was so well known and admired by everybody. No one expected her to die; and as she was just budding into womanhood it makes her demise all the harder to bear.

Choosing a Husband.

"Of beauty just enough to bear inspection;
Of candor, sense and wit, a good collection;
Enough of love for one who needs protection."
Excellent resolve ladies, and let the husband see that the 'wife, who has linked' her life with his, possesses sound sense and good juddgment. If she suffers from nervous debility, or uterine troubles, as alas so many do, let her manifest her good sense by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which has never been known to fail in such cases. It is the only remedy so sure in results that it can be sold on trial. See guarantee wrapped around each bottle.

Shot a Bear.

Saturday night Jacob Wenker and his brother Abe, of Lockport, while hunting along the eastern branch of Queen's run, treed a bear and killed it. Not having a wagon with them the two men left the former's 15-year-old son Harry with the bear while they went for the vehicle. The boy having only an axe as a weapon remained by himself in the mountain until the return of the men, which was not until daylight yesterday morning. The bear weighed 173 pounds. They also shot two coons. Lock Haven Democrat.

DIED ON SATURDAY.

Philip Benner Waddle Breathes His Last After a Long Illness.

Saturday morning at 10:45, the death angel claimed the soul of Philip Benner Waddle, at Buffalo Run, one of the oldest and best known residents of that neighborhood. Mr. Waddle was born on the 29th of Dec. 1809, making him almost 86 years old. Four daughters and three sons are left to mourn his death. They are Amelia, who lives at Hicksville, Ohio, Elizabeth, living at Pittsburg, Mrs. Z. B. Gray, of Tyrone, Mrs. D. L. Meek, who lives on the old homestead, and James P., W. W., and Philip D., living at Bellefonte.

Mr. Waddle had been ailing for several months but was able to be around the house until about three weeks ago, when he was compelled to take to his bed. Since then he had been sinking slowly, although at times he seemed better. On Sunday his condition was thought to be better than at any other time for several weeks but during this week he became worse and he finally passed into the great beyond, on Saturday.

The funeral services over the remains of Philip Benner Waddle were held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the church at Waddles station. At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning a special train over the B'f't Central carried many friends to the funeral. The masons were also there as the deceased was a member of that order. The services were conducted by Revs. Singer Horton, Rue and Young, and were very impressive.

The pall bearers were: John P. Harris, Daniel Garman, Wm. Shortledge, H. K. Miller, Dr. Thomas Tobin and J. Fearon Mann.

The interment was made at Gray's cemetery at Half Moon, about three miles from the late residence of the deceased. Carriages conveyed the mourners and friends to the burrying ground, the train waiting on them. The funeral was largely attended as the deceased was widely known in that community and was always highly thought of as a good, christian man. For fifty years he was a leader of a class in the Methodist church at Filmore, and nearly all his life he had been a devout christian.

The services at the grave were conducted by the Masons. There usual impressive burial service was gone through with and the scroll and apron were dropped into the grave signifying that his membership in person only of that order was at an end; and that his memory would ever live and be cherished. The small bows of ribbon which were tied on the coat lapel of each Mason were one by one, as the different members slowly filed past the grave, allowed to flutter down to the final resting place of a masonic brother.

Worthy of Your Confidence.

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in conquering scrofula in whatever way it may manifest itself is vouched for by thousands who were severely afflicted by this prevalent disease, bnt who now rejoice over a permanent cure by Hood' Sarsaparilla. Scrofula may appear as a humor. it may attack the glands of the neck, or break out in dreadful running sores on the body or limbs. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may, develop into catarrh or lodging in the lungs lead to consumption. Come as it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome it, for working upon the foundation of all diseases, impure blood, the system is clearified and vitalized, and vigor, strength and health restore the body.

Cut His Hand.

Friday evening about 7.30 o'clock, John Vallance had the misfortune to cut his left hand near the wrist. He had been working at Ritenour's livery stable and in some way or other he run his hand through a pane of glass. It was at first thought that an artery had been severed, but this proved to be untrue. The wound bled profusely for some time but finally the flow of blood was stopped and Dr. Harris sewed up the cut. It was a close call, for had the wound been to one side the least bit, an artery would have been cut.

Dedicated a New Church.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Grant have returned from Curwensville, where a new A. M. E. church was dedicated last Sunday. An example of how some people support the churches is best illustrated by the fact that during the dedication services, Gen. J. P. Patton and Col. Edward Irwin, the one a Methodist, and the other a Presbyterian, gave together about $700 to the church. While there are only about 87 colored people in Curwensville, these people themselves gave over $100.

A Fire Narrowly Averted.

On Thursday evening about 7 o'clock the stove in the AtM E church upset. Miss Lilha White narrrowly escaped being crushed by its weight. Had it not been for timely assistance of a tramp, A. V Jackson and Leander Green who were near at the time, the church would have gone up in flames and possibly every house on St. Paul's avenue. It was found that the stove fell over owing to an insecure foot breaking.

"Faust."

Joseph Callahan's presentation of "Mephisto', in that wierd piece of dramatism "Faust" was a more than acceptable star. Mr. Callahan possesses a good voice for his part, and his control over facial expressions is wonderful. Miss Ingram as "Margeurite," played her difficult part very well and captivated the people with heracting the part of the innocent peasant girl. The support of the company all through was good and at times elicited loud applause from the audience.
